

Resolution 25-36

To Approve Contribution to Amicus Brief in the Case of Shelby County v. Couser

WHEREAS, Shelby and Story Counties are seeking further appellate review at the Supreme Court of the United States of an Eighth Circuit panel's decision that invalidated their zoning ordinances regulating a hazardous liquid pipeline, arguing that their local laws are preempted by the federal Pipeline Safety Act in the case of Shelby County v. William Couser; and

WHEREAS, the question before the Supreme Court of the United States has the potential to impact all counties nationwide; and

WHEREAS, the Iowa State Association of Counties is filing a legal brief, on behalf of their members, as an amicus curiae in support of Shelby and Story Counties; and

WHEREAS, the Iowa State Association of Counties Board of Directors has requested any county interested in supporting financially to consider a contribution to help cover the cost of the amicus brief.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, the Board of Supervisors hereby approves a contribution of $ 500.00 to the amicus brief being filed by the Iowa State Association of Counties on behalf of their members.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, the Board of Supervisors directs payment of $ 500.00 to be made to the Iowa State Association of Counties.

HEREBY RESOLVED by the Board of Supervisors for Mills County on this 12th day of November, 2025.
